Little River Crests Tuesday At 38.1 Feet

Torrential rains totaling 8.91 inches in Cameron and around Milam County sent Little River and other county streams out of their channels early this week.

Rains totaling up to 10 inches fell in parts of the county.

Little River crested at 38.10 feet at 12:27 p.m. Tuesday for the highest mark since April 25 when it reached a height of 39.5 feet.

The rampaging waters of Elm Creek and other county tributaries washed away several county bridges while flooding water surged over a number of county roads.

Roads Closed

Three roads were still closed Tuesday night due to bridges out or high water standing in the roadways.

They were: FM Roads 485, 486, and 487. All three were in the southwest part of the county near Pettibone and San Gabriel.

Three county schools stopped classes Monday due to road conditions. Buckholts students did not attend classes Monday and Wednesday while Thorndale and Sharp schools were closed earlier this week.

Other highways closed earlier this week, but since reopened were FM Roads 1600, 908 and 2095. US 190 was closed to Hearne and US 79 was closed to all traffice except emergency vehicles.

The heavy waters also flooded bottomland in the Maysfield and Branchville communities where a number of farmers still had crops of irrigated cotton out.

85 Percent Cotton In

J. D. Moore, county agent, reported earlier this week that an estimated 85 percent of the cotton crop was in before the Sunday rains began.

In Cameron, the heavy rains poured across city streets and water was standing in the yards of dozens of Cameron homes.

Mayor Robert Weems estimated a high percentage of the town had water standing in yards and streets Tuesday as rain fell faster than it could run off.

Lighting struck a pump station switch in the city pump house. It was out of operation for a day and a half.

Phone lines were struck by lightning south of Cameron according to telephone officials.

A six-inch waterline also broke Monday in northwest Cameron, city officials reported.

County officials were out surveying bridges and road damage Wednesday morning. Some roads still were unpassable.

Baptists Vote Record $72,537 For '58 Budget

The First Baptist Church, Cameron, Sunday adopted a record budget for $72, 537 for 1958, including $32,500 for a church building program.

Officials said last year's budget was $41,806.

The enlarged financial program, officials said, would provide also for a bigger missionary program.

First phase of the building program will be a new auditorium, officials said.

The Rev. A. F. Russell, pastor, said the church is conducting a "Forward Program of Church Finance" in an effort to raise the level of individual giving. He said similar programs has been successful in other Baptist churches throughout Texas.

One of the highlights of the church finance program will be a Church Family Loyalty Dinner to be held 7 p.m. Thursday, October 24 at Yoe High School Gymnasium.

Church officials expect about 500 to attend the banquet.

Texas DA Approves Milam Hybrid Corn Totaling 225 Acres

AUSTIN — The Texas Department of Agriculture has approved 225 acres of hybrid corn in Milam County as certified or registered seed, Agriculture Commissioner John White announced today.

The fields were inspected during the 1957 crop year, and approvals were issued on the basis of Texas seed certification standards, White said.

"Purpose of the certification law is to create and make available a source of pure bred field seed," White explained. "This gives the purchaser of planting seed the benefit of an honest and unbiased opinion of the quality of such seed."

Firms or individuals voluntarily apply for inspection of their acreages and must meet all the requirements necessary to registration and certification, the commissioner pointed out.

When approved, they are issued registration and-or certification tags to be attached to each container of their seed.

Acreage under the seed certification program in Texas this year totals 169,287, Commissioner White reported. Twenty-one different crops and 185 varieties are in the program.

Final Non-Loop Tilt

Cameron To Meet Powerful Alvin

Cameron goes to Alvin tomorrow night to meet 17th-ranked Alvin in a final non-conference tilt before 9-AAA loop play begins.

Gametime is 8 p.m. at Alvin Stadium.

Victors over Palacious, 25-6, last Friday, Alvin will be striving for its fifth win. The Alvin club has tied one and has no losses.

Cameron, ranked 16th in state 3A ratings, hopes to extend a three-game winning streak. Coach Leo Jackson said today.

Heavy rains earlier this week stopped practices outside but Coaches Jackson, Jim Speer and Murphy Webster were conducting skull practices for the weather-bound squad.

Jackson said the Yoemen were in good physical shape following their 31-0 victory over Rosebud.

Alvin will field a team averaging about 160 pounds. Cameron's starting lineup outweighs the Alvin squad nine pounds to the man.

The Yoemen will leave Cameron today about noon, Jackson said. They will stop at Rosenberg for the evening meal and go on to Alvin to suit up for the game. They will stay all night at Rosenberg following the game.

FB To Meet Tonight For Resolution Talks

Resolutions for better farming and ranching conditions will be discussed at 8 p.m. today at the meeting of the Milam County Farm Bureau at Simon-George Hall, according to O. G. Tumlinson, county FB president.

The group will also select nine directors to serve on the governing body of the organization.

Tumlinson termed tonight's meeting the most important of the year for the county Farm Bureau organization.

Resolutions for improved farm and ranch conditions will be forwarded to the state Farm Bureau convention in Dallas in November for approval tonight, he said.

Committee Working

A resolution committee headed by A. A. Smith, former Milam County Farm Bureau president, has been studying the resolutions for consideration, Tumlinson continued.

The resolutions to be considered were developed in a group of community meetings held earlier this fall, he pointed out. The community groups forwarded suggestions for inclusion in the county resolutions.

"Any Farm Bureau member present tonight may offer additional resolutions," Tumlinson said. He urged all members to attend the meeting.

2 — Year Terms

In electing directors, the nine new FB directors will take two-year terms, filling out the full 18-member panel. The county officers are elected from the director's board, Tumlinson explained.

The resolution committee has 21 proposed resolutions to present to the membership. Tumlinson noted. They include resolutions on cotton, cotton grading, livestock, foreign trade, rural roads, water, states rights and soil bank.

School Asks Again

City Tables Request For Lower Rate

The City County Tuesday night tabled a second request from the Cameron school board for a reduced water rate and asked that City Secretary Wayne Wieser write the state Highway Department that Cameron has funds for the US 77 curb-gutter project.

Dr. David Shapiro asked that all seven school water meters be read as one to relieve the Cameron School District on future water costs that totaled $396 in August.

The council voted to table the request until new costs could be determinde when the new water plant is under operation.

The board also heard a request from V. A. Kubecka who asked that a drain be cleared of mud.

Many Requests

W. D. Bigbee, city street superintendent, told the council the request was among many during the rains which have flooded the the yards of homes in Cameron.

The Council also asked for a check on costs of installing additional speed limit signs on highways coming into Cameron. The Cameron Chamber of Commerce had asked that steps be taken to post additional speed limit signs along the highways.

They also asked for a check on costs of installing a modern four-way stop sign at North Fannin and Fourth St. Officials pointed out that the sign lights are barely visible when the sun shines on it.

Authorize Notice

The council authorized Wieser to write the state highway department to advise the state funds were available for construction of curbs, gutter and sidewalks for the US 77 widening project now on the state agenda.

The city set aside $12,500 for the project. The state already has put the project on its construction agenda.

Board Will Make Killeen Decision

The Cameron school board Thursday night voted to wait until Thursday, October 31, for a final decision on whether to play Killeen here the following night.

Supt. Wiley Loughmiller said that Killeen school officials had asked whether the board had reached a decision to play the integrated Killeen squad.

He pointed out that Cameron in 1955 had contracted with Killeen to guarantee $500 if the game was forfited. School board members questioned the legality of such a contract if it was made without the written approval of the school board two years ago.

Poll Taken

A poll of Cameron students' parents last spring showed they were not in favor of playing Killeen on the home field if a second-string Negro halfback accompanies the team.

In other action the board voted to accept a bid of $13.95 per jacket for football jackets to 1957 grid lettermen at Yoe High School. The bid went to Athey Supply Co.

The board also unanimously voted to discontinue eighth grade graduation exercises at Ada Henderson School.

They also voted to rquire payment for damages to school property by youngsters who intentionally damage school facilities. The student not paying for damages would be expelled until costs of repair are paid.

Considers Holliday

visement pending administration study closing of school November 11 for Armed Forces Day.

The group voted to put $20,000 of the building fund on time deposit.

In final action the board voted not to send the YHS band to Alvin and Stephenville due to the long driving distances involved.

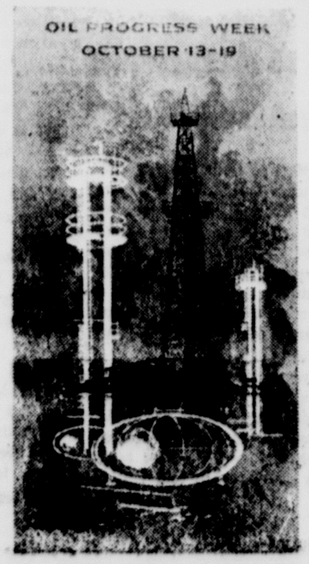
THE WONDROUS YEARS OF OUR TIME...



Man's use of petroleum — of oil and natural gas — began before the first records of history.

But petroleum's full usefulness to man has been a matter of decades only.

They have been wondrous years, those decades. Years that saw automobiles built by the millions because gasoline was available as a cheap source of power. Years that saw the oceans dwindle under the high speed of great ships powered by oil. Years that saw the evolution of a more comfortable living in homes warmed by oil and natural gas. Years that saw rubber, fibers, paints and many other useful items of everyday living produced from petroleum's hydrocarbons. Years that saw the earth shrink under the wings of the airplane, and great wars decided by the availability of oil.

Thus, the oil industry has led the way into the wondrous years of our time. The industry, through foresight, ingenuity, research, and risk-taking, has found and produced the oil required in greater quantity each year, has conserved oil for the future, has devised the transportation systems that move oil economically, has built the refineries and plants that convert crude oil and natural gas to the hundreds of useful products needed by a growing United States.

The Humble Company, founded in 1917, has participated in petroleum's progress during four great decades, and has pioneered in the development of many current techniques for finding, producing and refining oil. This week, with the industry, Humble invites you to consider the variety and extent of oil's progress . . . Surely no other industry has contributed more to the making of modern America.

A Tribute . . . .

To Our Civic Leaders!

There have been others - such as Benjamin Franklin - who healed family troubles as well as those of the commonwealth. Today, the fine, efficient men who guide the civic destinies of our community do not have time to personalize their talents. But they work assiduously for the good of the greatest number. and they do a most commendable job. They do their utmost - give of their time and effort - to make our community - Your Neighborhood - your life, more abundant. Give them your support. Show them you appreciate their goals and achievements!

Bunker Silos Are Economical

New silos will be needed this year and one which many farmers will consider is the bunker-type. Advantages are low initial cost, speed of erection, no required excavation and ease of feeding. Bunker silos can also serve as self-feeders.

The bunker silo holds about twice the silage per dollar invested as the most conventional upright silo. It consists of a floor flanked by side walls from six to eight feet high and is usually open on both ends. Silage is dumped from wagons and each load packed tightly to reduce spoilage.

Most critical part of construction is the side wall. It must have sufficient strength to support the weight of the silage and the weight of the filling and packing equipment. Walls should slope outward slightly so that silage will settle tightly against them.

Walls may be made of concrete or lumber. Lumber is the least expensive because it does not require forms. Two-inch by six-inch tongue and grooved siding supported by sturdy wood posts is recommended. Because silage moisture can cause early rotting of untreated siding and poles, the wood used should be treated with a permanent-type preservative such as pentachlorophenol. Such treated wood is available from most building materials dealers.

Many experienced pole-building contractors can erect bunker silos. In addition, information about building, filling and using bunker silos is contained in bulletins and plans available from county agents, state agricultural colleges, or from the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Recipe Of Week

Cheese Rates Tops In Menu Ratings

Some like it mild and some like it sharp, but most people like cheese most of the time.

No one knows just who made the first cheese, but a fine act it was for pople all over the world use cheese in quantity.

The Pilgrims included cheese in the ship's supplies when they made their famous voyage. And so, in America, cheese has always been with us and we eat more and more of it.

Cheddar A Favorite

Probably the cheese most homemakers know best is Cheddar or American. This was the first great product of American cheesemakers. Now however, many of the European cheeses are made in America and with complete success. Cheese counters offer a great variety at popular prices.

Store cheese in the refrigerator. Soft, unripened cheeses, such as cottage and cream, are quite perishable, so buy only the amount to use in a short time.

Unpackaged cheese should be tightly wrapped in waxed paper, foil or plastic film before refrigerating. Store packaged cheeses in their containers. Mold, which may develop on natural cheeses, is not harmful. Cut off the mold and the cheese is ready for use.

Freezer Harms Cheese

Do not store cheese in a freezer Freezing damages the characteristic texture of most cheese. Camebert and Liederkranz are exceptions and may be frozen for several months, but serve them promptly after thawing.

When cheese is served in slices or wedges, as for snacks and dessert, serve it at room temperature cheeses take on a mellowness. Cottage cheese is the exception here.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Quick Cheese Bread: Sift together 2 cups sifted flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder and ½ teaspoon salt. Add and mix well 1 cup grated American cheese. Combine 2 beaten eggs and 1 cup milk.

Add slowly to flour-cheese mixture mixing only enough to blend ingredients. Fold in ¼ cup melted butter or margarine. Pour in to greased 9 x 5 x 3 - inch loaf pan and bake in moderate gas oven (375 F.) 40 minutes or until golden brown.

Large Populace Demands Larger Water Supply

COLLEGE STATION — Expanding industry and rising standards of living require more and more water per person to satisfy the American way of life.

One fourth the population today is troubled with water shortage, poor water, or both, reports the Soil Conservation Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The potential supply of water remains constant while needs for human use pyramid with growing population, according to the SCS. From 1900 to 1950,, while U. S. population doubled, total water use, to her than for power, increased fourfold. By 1955 it was up another 21 percent from 1950. Water needs are expected to double again by 1975.

Average daily use for all purposes increased from 600 gallons per capita in 1900 to 1,100 gallons in 1950 and 1,300 in 1955. By 1975 the country will be using 1,800 gallons of water a day for every man, woman and child.

Industry and irrigation are by fa the largest users.

Water problems are largely watershed protection problems, says SCS, pointing out that water control and conservation cannot be separatd from soil conservation.

It was Cameron's fourth 1957 homegame win.

The YHS reserves played most of the game after the first nine minutes during which the Yoemen scored three touchdowns on runs of 20, 54 and 40 yards by HB Warren Rinn, HB Hubert Marek and QB Bobby Elliott respectively.

Marek later ran for 46 yards and the final Cameron TD. Guy Dillon, Cameron's explosive fullback, joined the scoring with a one-yard plunge for a TD early in the third quarter.

The small Panther squad was led by HB's Sitz and Voight in racking up 105 yards rushing and six yards passing. Cameron gained a total of 384 yards passing and running.

Second-string QB Dodson, Archie Mraz, John Jedlicka, Edward Lierman, Jesse Kirk and the reserve line played most of the game.

100 Yards, 2 TD's

Marek's two touchdown sprints gobbled up an even 100 yards to give him the night's top honors in yards gained. He ran one other down for 14 yards.

Deepest penetration in Yoemen territory for the Panthers was to the Cameron 25 when Rosebud recovered a YHS fumble in the fourth quarter. But YHS End Zarosky ended the threat at the Cameron 10 when he intercepted a Panther second-down pass.

The fireworks started following Cameron's kickoff to Rosebud.

At the Panther 41, Rinn hauled in a first-down Panther pass and returned it to the Rosebud 21.

Dillon tried right guard for a yard. Then Rinn zipped 20 yards on a reverse to score standing up. Cameron punched over the PAT. Cameron 7, Rosebud 0.

Rosebud gained its first first down following the kickoff to their 31. But the Yoe forward wall pushed them back in the next four plays, forcing Allen to kick to the Cameron 46.

On the first play from scrimmage, Marek stepped through a gaping hole over left guard and sprinted 54 yards for a talley. Dillon's kick was blocked. Cameron 13, Rosebud 0.

McAtee took the next Cameron kickoff, returning to his 28. He kept for 2. Allen gained 3, then was stopped for no gain. Allen punted to Tepera at the Rosebud 48.

Elliott Goes 40

Dillon gained 4 and 5 in the next two plays before Elliott turned to his left side and sprinted 40 yards behind good downfield blocking for the third Cameron score. The kick was blocked. Cameron 19, Rosebud 0.

The next Cameron kickoff went to Voight who was downed on his 22. Two Allen plunges and a Sitz run around right end failed to make a first and Allen kicked to the Cameron 37.

A Dodson fumble and a 15-yard penalty forced Cameron to kick on fourth down. From the Rosebud 40. Voight and Allen gained 6. But Allen was again forced to kick on fourth to Lierman at Cameron 37.

Kirk, Mraz and Terry combined for a first at the Panther 47. Kirk and Mraz each hit for 2, but another 15-yard Cameron penalty set the Yoemen back to their 37. Terry gained 3. A Dodson pass went incomplete and Green kicked to Voight at the Rosebud 14.

Rosebud came back with two consecutive first downs with Sitz, Allen and Voight alternating carries to the Rosebud 47.

Johnny Tepera brought down a McAtee pass at the Rosebud 45 to nip the drive.

Cameron was unable to move the ball on the next series, kicking to Rosebud's 5. Voight gained 6 to his 11, but Voight was held to no gain on the next two plays. Allen kicked to Cameron just before the half.

YHS Scores In 5 Plays

Cameron's first team started the second half, going 53 yards in five plays for the fourth Cameron score. Dillon punched for 1 and Rinn went off left tackle for 17 to the Rosebud 35. Marek raced 14 to the Panther 21. Elliott kept for 20 and Dillon punched over for the score. Marek's kick was blocked. Cameron 21, Rosebud 0.

Dodson intercepted a third-down Panther pass following the next YHS kickoff. Jedlika and Mraz combined for a first to the Cameron 41. Mraz gained 4. Dodson then hit Marek at the Rosebud 47 for a first down.

The Yoe attack sputtered at the Rosebud 44 with Green kicking to the Rosebud 15. The Panthers gained 6 in the next three plays, then punted to Lierman who ran to the Cameron 30.

Rosebud held three thrusts by Mraz and Lierman. Then Green kicked 55 yards to the PPanther 10.

The Panthers' McAtee punted a quick on down as the Yoe line pushed Rosebud to their 5. Rosebud taking the ball on the next play when Cameron fumbled. Again the Panther offense was held, forcing Allen to kick to Cameron. But he recovered his own punt at Cameron 46 when the YHS receiver fumbled.

Rosebud Recovers Fumble

The next three plays netted Rosebud 2 yards, forcing Allen's kick to Cameron at the YHS 22. Another fumble put the ball back into Rosebud's possession on the Cameron 25. But Zarosky's interception stopped the threat.

The Yoe first string re-entered the game and racked up the final touchdown in two plays. Rinn burst loose around left end for 44 yards to the Panther 46. Then Marek went over right tackle on the next play and raced the remaining 46 for the TD. Marek's kick was short. Cameron 31, Rosebud 0.

Rosebud was held for no gain on the next series of plays and kicked to Lierman who returned to the Cameron 29. Dodson hit Green with a first-down pass good for 25 yards to the Rosebud 46.

He was thrown for a 12-yard loss on the next play, then tossed to Zarosky for 11 and to Green and the first.

But the drive stalled at the Rosebud 34 when Cameron failed to make the necessary yardage. Sitz gained 2 for Rosebud as the game ended.

The entire Cameron team shared in the victory as Coach Leo Jackson emptied his bench during the contest. Cameron's first-string team ran 13 plays for five touchdowns.

Yoemen Hold No. 16 Rating

Cameron's Yoemen still hold No. 16 in state 3-A ranks this week following a 31-0 victory over a young Rosebud squad Friday night.

Two other 9AAA loop teams maintain ratings in the top 20 3-A teams in Texas. Waco University High stands at No. 12 following a strong showing in defeating Dallas Jesuit, 26-19, and Killeen is at No. 15 after easing by Mineral Wells, 19-14.

The Yoemen's opponents this season hold four of the top 20 spots. Brenham, the only team to defeat the Yoemen this fall, is in 14th. They defeated Cameron 26-12 on their home field. Alvin, tomorrow night's Cameron opponent, is one notch behind the Yoemen at 17th.

Brenham dropped its first loss of the year last Friday when El Campo stopped Janner and Company, 10-0.

Cameron has yet to play scheduled games with Killeen and University High.

The Buckholts Badgers will be back at home this week to play host to the Flat six-man football team. This game will be the conference opener for both teams in the 21-B district.

Practice has been halted this week due to weather conditions, but a good game is anticipated when the two rivals clash on the gridiron Thursday with kick-off time at 8 p.m.

The Badgers have won four out of six games this season, the latst being last with a 30-14 battle over the Liberty Hill Panthers. There were no statistics available as to the record of the Flat team.

Three of the Badgers have been on the sick list the past few days but will probably see duty in the Thursday night game.

How To Take A Soil Test

If your yields weren't as high as expected at harvest, or your hay crop has been below par then soils samples taken and tested can help you find the reason.

Poor yields often result from lack of nutrients in the soil. But even if your yields were high, the crops have drained off big amounts of plant food, and replenishments may be necessary.

A soil test can help you decide what kinds and how much fertilizer to add for planting this year.

Agronomists point out, however, that soil tests are only as good as the samples a farmer takes from his field. R. D. Bronson, Purdue University, soils specialist, says that inaccurate samples cause the greatest errors in soil testing. Here's the proper way to take soil samples:

1. Pick an area on your farm that is uniform in color and soil texture—one which has had similar cropping and fertilizer treatment.

2. Avoid mixing soils that are light and dark colored, or those with a different crop history or past fertilizer treatment.

3. Use a sampling tube, auger or shovel to remove a small sample from surface to plow depth.

4. Stay away from fertilizer bands in row crops, farm lands, field borders, feeding areas, sand ridges and areas within 100 feet of gravel roads.

5. Mix the samples representing one area thoroughly in a clean pail. Spread out the final mixture to dry. Use enough of this mixture to fill one soil carton.

Soil sampling instructions, forms to fill out and shipping containers, can be obtained from local county agents or fertilizer dealers.

"Good soil tests can provide one of the best guides available for determining the plant food reserves of the soil. They can help a farmer provide his crops with the balanced fertility needed to get profitable returns from his investment in fertilizer," says the Agricultural Service Division of the Union Bag-Camp Paper Corporation, makers of multiwall bags for fertilizer.

Cameron SCS Conservationist

This SCD news column usually confines its efforts to commending farmers for their conservation accomplishments on their rural land. Today we want to call attention to some conservation achievements on city acreage - Cameron's Ledbetter Park.

About four years ago SCS personnel met with the leaders of Cameron's Boy Scout troops for the purpose of selecting and planning a Boy Scout Conservation Project.

Weeds Cover Area

At that time we could have started anywhere in the park, for the entire area was covered with weeds, briars and other undesirable plants. Rubbish was everywhere, and the buildings were in poor condition and open to vandalism.

Rev. John Solomon remarked that day to the group. "Here is a God given natural resource with high potential value for wildlife and recreation and could serve more people than any other acreage its size in the county, but its potential is not being utilized or developed".

project at the Boy Scout hut project a tthe Boy Scout hut. They cleaned the area, shaped waterways, set out grass and fertilized. Since that time, we have seen much improvement.

Grass Growing

Invading weeds are being mowed so that the native grasses can grow and form a solid turf; undesirable trees and shrubs are being removed; the area is being kept free from rubbish; the buildings have been renovated; the lake has been properly stocked with fish, and now the entire park is being used more for recreation and less by vandals.

We do not know who is entirely responsible for the improvements here, but, whether it is the city officials, Saddle Club, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, D.A.V., American Legion or other groups or individuals, they should be commended for the excellent start that has been made on the development and conservation of this priceless natural resource which is Cameron's Ledbetter Park.

Biologists Estimate Big Fish Supply

AUSTIN — With more than 14 million fish produced by Texas hatcheries and a tremendous natural spawn, there are probably more fish swimming in the state this year than ever before, according to biologists of the Game & Fish Commission.

In a report of the Director of Inland Fisheries, 10,446,920 bass were produced artificially during the 1956-57 season. Channel catfish took the next spot with a total of 2,082,515 from the hatcheries.

Other productions included 25,150 rock bass; 211,020 warmouth bass; 384,198 bluegill; 901,758 redear sunfish; 103,800 green sunfish; 295,033 yellowbreast sunfish; 465,760 black crappie and 14,825 white crappie.

The San Angelo hatchery with 2,260,925 produced the greatest number. Eagle Mountain was second with 2,160,194.

Fish hatcheries suffered from too little and too much water during the year. During the 1956 fall and winter months, they were hard hit by the drouth. In the 1957 spring they were almost washed away by flood waters.

Hunters Sharpening Aim in Dove Season

By Hugh Williamson

Now that the dove season is open in the South Zone, more Texans are brightening their shooting eyes.

Hunters know the mourning dove is like a good halfback. He's shifty and he has a deceptive change of pace.

He's not as fast as some birds, but if you can hit a dove you can hit any bird that flies.

Here is a shooting stance recommended by expert shooters.

First be sure both feet are solid on the ground, unimpeded by brush. The left knee should be slightly bent.

Now Do This

When the bird comes along, swing the gun along his line of flight. Shift your weight from right to left foot, and squeeze the trigger as you pass him, leading the bird just enough.

What do I mean by just enough? I mean that you don't zig when he zags. Also that you don't speed up when he slows down, or vice versa.

Seems simple, doesn't it? Why not try it sometime?

But try it with a lighter gun than your father or grandfather used.

There are two big reasons for a lighter gun. One is that you can swing it more easily as you follow the bird in flight. The other is that those old 12-guages get heavy along about the end of the day.

And nowadays you can do fine shooting with a "20" because of improved loads.

Hunters customarily have worn red to make themselves known to other hunters and thereby avoid being shot.

But now comes a color change because optometrists at two Army posts have discovered that yellow can be distinguished more easily and quickly than any other hue.

Red was one of the worst colors for being readily seen, according to the tests. The ranking was this way: yellow, orange, green, red, blue.

All of which makes me wonder if yellow is a favorite color for fishing lures because the fish see it quickly, the same as we do.

A friend of mine, who had great fishing success on a South Texas lake, not long ago reported that it didn't make any difference what kind of lures he used, so long as they were yellow.

The other day a partner and I were fishing on Lake Austin, and the only bass caught were on a yellow Lucky-13.

Guessing Game

You might follow through on this and speculate that bluegills readily strike golden larvae because of their color. But you would doubtless soon run into complications. For example, I took a fine string of bluegills recently, using those coal black crickets that have been so plentiful.

Talking about bait is a good part of the fun—but there's one conclusion I have drawn: I'll always have a few yellow lures in my tackle box.

Another tip about lures is to use light ones when the day is bright, dark ones at dawn, dusk, or night. Trying to figure that one out(at first thought it seems the reverse ought to be true), I reason that in dark waters the night sky seems bright.

And in daylight the blue sky is darker than the sun filled, reflection-bright water. In any event you should use a lure that is easily shade.

Fishing Best Now

Fishing is going to be at its best for the next few months. There are several reasons why that is true.

Most of the vacationers have gone back to work. This cooler weather encourages the fish and discourages the water skiers. And many quondam fishermen have gone to the sunflower patches for doves, further reducing the angling population.

Fishing is good in the Spring—before the heat and the tourists set in.

But why fishing is generally thought of as a summer sport, I'll never know.

For that matter, I'll never know why Summer is the vacation time for most folks. Spring would be a better time. So would Fall. Even Winter. Who wouldn't enjoy a couple of weeks off around Christmas and New Year's Day?

It's Being Done

But no—we take vacations in the Summer because people always have done it that way and we're too full of inertia to change.

For the same reason, I suppose, we wear a coat and tie in Summer because our forebears in England did. England+where I took a nap on the afternoon of July 24 one year and missed the whole warm season.

Anyway, most anglers will agree that Texas fishing in the hot summer months is poor. A lot of anglers won't even try it. They hang up their rods uni October comes.

A lot of us keep trying. I know a place where you can always catch gaspergou in July. I know another place where your chances are good to get a string of white and black bass in July and August. Sometimes the trotliners get cat?sh.

Then, there's always the coast where, if they don't actually bite every day, they do bite some days. And if you hit a good one you're in.

But Fall's the time for the best and biggest fish.

A minute for safety beats a month for repairs.—DRIVE SAFELY

TELEPHONE TALK
by C. L. Carson, Manager

MEET MRS. BARRON

The lady pictured here is Mrs. Fannie Barron, service representative in the local business offcie.

Mrs. Barron began her telephone career April 19, 1926 and has more than 31 years service to her credit. She started as an operator here in Cameron. In October 1945 she was promoted to service representative, her present position.

Mrs. Barron is the wife of Douglas Barron. She is a member of the First Baptist Church and a member of the Telephone Pioneers of America. As her hobbies during her spare time she enjoys raising flowers and does some painting.

Her many years in the telephone business is a record to be proud of.

Football Fun

Another football season is underway. If there are any fans around your house, it's likely that the radio and television sets will be working overtime for the next few months bringing the games into your home. It's the next best thing to having a 50-yard line seat.

Maybe you've never realized it but the telephone company plays an important part in bringing you these football broadcasts, as well as other radio and television programs from distant places for your enjoyment.

Telephone engineers have worked constantly through the years to improve these facilities. Today we use both cable and microwave networks to transmit these broadcasts.

And, of course, improved transmission means more pleasure from the programs for you.

This is another example of how the telephone company always seeks to bring you improved communi- in radio, television, on a local telephone call across town or a Long Distance call across the nation.

Getting back to football, have you attended any of the Cameron Yoemen games this season? If not, why don't you plan to be at the next one. Better still, go to all the Yoemen games this year. You'll enjoy them and the team will appreciate your support.

Save 1-3 On Out-of-Town Calls

Whether you're making a business call or just keeping in touch with members of the family in other cities, it's smart to place your Long Distance calls Station-to-Station.

You save money because Station-to-Station rates are about one-third lower than Person-to-Person rates. This means you can make three calls for the price of two.

And here's another Long Distance tip to remember: call by number—it's twice as fast.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

United Fund Time

It's United Fund time. North Milam County's goal has been set at $11,300 for the 1957-58 year.

And it's up to Cameron and other northern county towns to raise that amount in contributions and pledges by November 15.

The Drive starts November 1.

We see a number of reasons in favor of giving the United way. First, one contribution goes to seven local and national charities and organizations which have been screened by local officials for local need.

The advantage here is obvious. How much easier it is to give one time to all seven groups than to each at seven different times.

Second, because these groups have been screened, contributors know that the money will go directly to these groups at the local group.

For convenience, for service and assistance to those who need it, give to the United Fund. Contributions will go to help Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, Red Cross, Heart Fund, local charities and the Cameron Library Fund.

Let's boost North Milam County's United Fund.

THE LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER

Space Travel Prospects Fail To Impress Sage

By J. A.

Dear editar:

Last week it wasn't necessary to go out of your way at all to get hold of the main topic of discussion throughout the world -- that satellite the Russians shot out into space, and while I haven't heard of anybody around here who has seen it, I'll admit if they're like me they haven't tried very hard.

If it's passing over my farm every 95 minutes, it's all right with me. There's no law against it.

But I have been thinking. Now I understand some people in the United States are concerned over the fact Russia got a satellite up first, but it doesn't bother me. I figure we'll get one up before long. The secret of a satellite is sort of like the secret of the bicycle -- it's pretty generally known in scientific circles.

But what does interest me is this. I feel sure we can get a small satellite up into space, and a little later on we can get a bigger one, then a still bigger one, and if we spend enough effort and money we can finally, I suppose, get a real rocket ship up in space, with a man on board, and I'm sure we ought to do it.

But I've been thinking, what a joke it would be on the scientists if after we spend several billion dollars, get the rocket ship up all right, and the man on board successfully sails it around throughout space for a few days and then radios back: "Well, I've been around the moon twice, I've traveled a 100 million miles in every direction I can think of from the earth, I've explored everything I can find out here, and while I hate to say this, I know you've spent a lot of money getting me and this rocket ship into outer space, BUT THERE AIN'T NOTHING OUT HERE. I can't find a blamed thing ou there worth having and you can see just as much of nothing as I can by looking straight up from where you're standing on earth. No trees, no rivers, no land, no people, just a lot of nothing and a million or so monotonous stars that sun-burn you if you get close. If it's all right with you, I'd like to come back down. I'd even enjoy arguing with my wife. Anything to get away from all this blank space."

Now I'm not saying this is what'll happen, we ought to go ahead and see anyway, but we ought to keep in the back of our mind that it's possible a twinkling star is sort of like a movie actress -- it looks a lot better from a distance.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY: Love one aonther with brotherly affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Rom. 12:10

Capitol Report

New Law Appeal May Mean Two Extra Sessions

By Vern Sanford .....

AUSTIN-There's talk now of not just one, but two special sessions of the Legislature.

East Texas House members, who served as a tightly-knit team in pushing pro-segregation laws last spring, are asking Governor Price Daniel for a chance to put through some more.

Texas needs laws to prevent the kind of trouble that developed in Little Rock, say the East Texans. Specifically, they propose (1) a law to allow local boards to close schools in case of riots or occupation by troops and (2) a measure directing the Attorney General to assist local school systems involved in federal suits to enforce integration.

Daniel said, "It may be we should take some further action." But he said he thought the East Texans were wise in not suggesting the segregation issues be added to the agenda of the session which opened Monday. It was called to work on lobby registration, regulation of practice before state agencies, water conservation and crime study. Most observers think thrashing out all the details on these will take a full 30 days.

FOUR INDICTED

Travis County Courts, which serve as the arena in which state officials are taken to task, are due many more months of state-wide attention.

After four months of studying the history of the ICT Insurance Co., a Travis grand jury returned perjury indictments against Former Insurance Commissioners Garland A. Smith and J. Byron Saunders. It also indicted ICT's onetime manager, BenJack Cage, on charges of bribing the commissioners. Also Smith's son-in-law, Max Wayne Rychlik, on perjury charges.

Jurors recommended state laws be strengthened, particularly in regard to liabilities and responsibilities of company officers and board members.

There wasn't time to go into legislative lobbying, said the weary jury. But it urged a law requiring registration and expense reports by lobbyists.

Proof that the jury's tiresome task took its toll was the hospitalization of one member just as the term ended, reportedly suffering from "physical exhaustion."

WATER PREVIEW

Sectional rivalries and lack of money have hobbled past efforts for an over-all water conservation program in Texas. So said speakers at the Texas Water Conservation Association meeting where water problems confronting the special legislative session were previewed.

State Water Board Chairman R. M. Dixon said his department has never had enough money to carry out its assigned duties. He asked for more money to gather data and pay salaries comparable with other state departments.

House Speaker Waggoner Carr pointed out that legislators have had trouble getting together on a water program because they reflect the conflicting ideas of their constituents, said Carr. He urged cooperation.

Duck Conditions Good For Fall, Says Expert

AUSTIN—Conditions right now for a good duck hunting season this fall are excellent, according to J. R. Singleton, Wildlife Biologist of the Game and Fish Commission.

"There has been enough rain to bring on natural food and right conditions for growth," he said. "The summer showers over the area have been very beneficial. The rains of recent weeks have put new water on the ground to provide feed for the birds. Flooded fields make much more food available."

Pintails and teal are on schedule with some spoonbills coming in, the biologist said.

To Inspect Poultry

Soon all poultry moving in interstate commerce will be inspected and graded for wholesomeness under the recently enacted Poultry Products Inspection Act. The act becomes partially effective on January 1, 1958, when plants approved by the USDA may be provided the service.

THE "BLACK SHEEP" OF OUR FAMILY
When Johnny started Sunday School . . . the Devil thought he had his foot in the door.
The teachers must have been at their wit's end—but they never showed it. The Superintendent faced many a crisis—but always he was patient. The Pastor even smiled as he returned the confiscated pea-shooter. "You're not a bad shot, Johnny," he said!
Claire and I soon began to realize that Christians do turn the other cheek . . . in the Junior Department it's standard operating procedure.
TODAY, Johnny is a freshman in college. Every Sunday he attends the church of our faith near the campus. And, recently, he confided to me his ambitions:
He wants to become an engineer. Then, he wants to marry his childhood sweetheart, Jane. And as soon as they're settled, he wants to teach a class of "real gone" kids in the Junior Department.
Now Claire and I realize what the Church means in the life of the "black sheep"—of your family or ours!
THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Attend The Church of Your Choice

This 1899 Locomobile Steamer got a new lease on life with unique and badly needed "engine" overhaul. Its owner, Vito Fresolone, Union, N. J., made a recent check on the old timer's power plant and found that the boiler tubes were choked with rust and scale. In this condition, the carbon steel tubes could not properly transfer heat and produce steam power. So Fresolone invigorated his antique by pulling out all 308 of the worn fire tubes and replacing them with Carpenter stainless steel tubes 1/2 inch in diameter by 13-7/16 inches long. Now, with a steel that resists corrosion, he expects almost indefinite service from his ageless boiler. The boiler produces up to 180 pounds of steam pressure, enough to propel the old chain driver relic at a speed of 20 to 25 miles per hour. Value of the ancient steamer, which can be seen today chugging around the New Jersey countryside, is estimated at several thousand dollars.

Area Supervisor Audits Records Of Milam Board

Charles H. Ehlert, clerical supervisor for this district, visited in the local draft board office for two days this week, auditing records and reviewing files.

The local board met in regular session October 13. Approximately 50 files came before the board. The major topic under discussion was regulations pertaining to right of appeal and reopening of files, officials said.

Registrants have right of appeal each time the file is reopened and a new classification notice is mailed, so do dependents. However, employers do not have right of appeal unless they requested the deferment before hand.

When employers make writtn request for defermnt, they are notified following the meeting of the board, regarding whatever action was taken in the case of their employee. These employers have ten days following mailing date of this notice during which to file an appeal.

While registrants have right of personal appearance or appeal, or both, following mailing of each classification notice, the employer only has right of appeal. Ten days are allowed following mailing of notice in which registrants may file request for personal appearance and this 10 day period may not be extended, regardless of circumstances.

The Texas Legislature convened for a special session called by Gov. Price Daniel at the State Capitol in Austin 10 a.m. Monday. according to State Rep. Herman Yezak.

5. To consider and act on such other subjects and questions as the Governor may submit from time to time.

The secretary of state mailed all members of the Legislature copies of the official proclamation calling the special session.
